WOMAN'S RIGHTS.

A right to tread so softly Beside the couch of pain: To smooth with gentle fingers

The tangled locks again: To watch beside the dying In wee small hours of night, And breathe a consecrating prayer When the spirit takes its flight.

A right to cheer the weary On the battle-fields of life; To give the word of sympathy Amid the toil and strife; To lift the burdens gently

From the sore and tired hearts, And never weary of the task Till gloomy care departs. A right to be a woman In truest woman's work-

If life should be a hard one No duties ever shirk: A right to show to others How strong a woman grows When skies are darkening and lowering

And life bears not a rose. A right to love one truly . And be loved back again: A right to share his fortunes Through sunlight and through rain;

A right to be protected From life's most cruel lights By manly love and courage-Sure these are woman's rights!
